

In Eastern Waters.

The Harbor
at Osterville,
Mass.
Photo by A. H. Laidlaw Jr.

QUAINT PIGEON COVE OUT ON THE POINT

PIGEON COVE, Cape Ann, Mass., Saturday.—Away up on the very "line," as the natives say, of Cape Ann lies the quaint little town of Pigeon Cove, with its settlement of summer hotels and cottages and its isolated, weather-beaten and unpainted homes of the "natives."

Pigeon Cove, Rockport, Gloucester are only the beginnings of a long chain of historic towns in which is included the old witch-infested Salem—that line the cape, extending down to Boston and offering a succession of the coolest and most delightful summering places to be found in Massachusetts.

The whole region is a paradise for artists, who find infinite variety of studies in the exquisite glimpses of sea and harbor, of field and forest, which characterize the whole Atlantic coast hereabouts. An artist's temporary summer home, perched upon the very brink of the story shore of this old granite State, or an artist's easel set up for sketching, with his owner industriously at work, regardless of incalculable passerby, is an interesting feature noticed everywhere.

In Pigeon Cove one seems to be living on the sea. One cannot escape the ocean if one would. It almost makes an island of the picturesque little place, and no matter in which direction one takes one's walk, its white feathery spray seems to dash over the rocky shore into one's face. This dreamy, Rip Van Winkle little village has a soothing charm rarely met with.

Though crowded just now with visitors, it has never yet been vulgarized by the resortists, as have the resorts on the New Jersey seaboard. Electric lights and cars have invaded its charming solitude, but its customs have remained unchanged. Life is as slow and untroubled among the "natives" as it was a hundred years ago. The "curfew" still rings and the cows wear bells, as do the tradesmen's wagons, on which a merry chime of sleigh bells "marks music wherever they go." Post office, telephone office and store close up an hour at noon, while the "natives" retire to dine. The custodian of the oil lamps, which just make the darkness visible, makes a perfect "junker" of the lighting of the place, going around every evening in an open buggy with one or two female friends or relatives. It is great fun to see him drive neatly up alongside of the lamp post, and without leaving his buggy, kindle the beacon light.

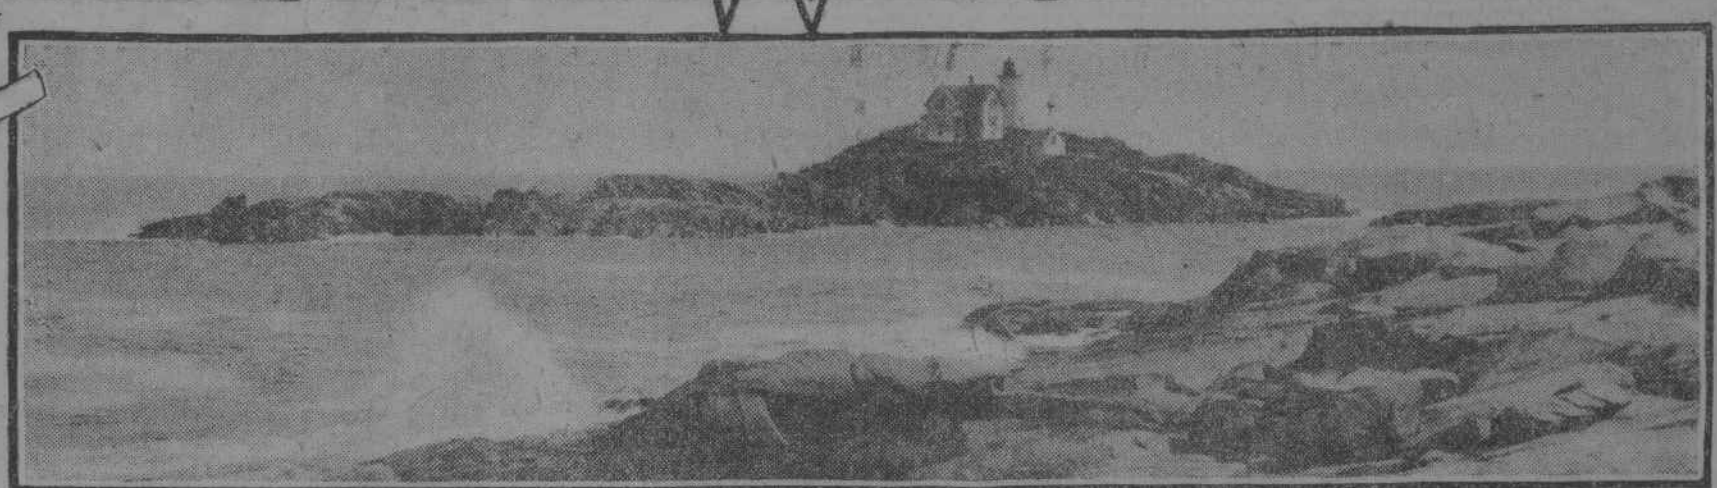

The Puritan Sabbath, too, is still in vogue. A young man of mild and inoffensive mien, who endeavored to hire a boat on a Sunday to go fishing and met with a refusal, was lectured by an old salt, who told him if he continued to spend his Sabbath trying to catch fish that "he would go to perdition."

Pigeon Cove is a most unusual and beautiful combination of forest and field and ocean, the tall pine trees, great oaks and smooth turf, meeting "the deep blue sea" at its very edge. It can be imagined what a charming place it is for walks, or for long tramps or wheeling. Roads run along the ocean side, through shady woods, over stony, hilly ways, full of surprises and vistas of beautiful landscapes. The vegetation is wild flowers and hardy garden plants gives the bits of color in the picture, so exhilarating to the artist's eye and fancy.

There must be something in the air that gives the flowers their fragrance and brilliant coloring and causes them to grow with such luxuriance, for certainly never before have such masses been seen of the lovely "crimson rambling," a rose of the richest hue, that makes beautiful the rough stone fences and garden walks. Every up to date form of amusement exists either indoors or out. Ping-pong, whist, golf, tennis, croquet, fishing, sailing, boating, sea bathing and a Saturday evening here are among the means that make the hours fly. In a few places a sandy beach makes bathing delightful, but the coast, with its many coves and bays, is marked by huge, irregular piles of broken stones. To lie in the sun upon these warm stones, wrapped in shawl or mackintosh, and dream the hours away, means oblivion to every petty care or worry.

The harbor of Pigeon Cove, upon which the United States government has spent over a million and half of money, is guarded by a breakwater, with lighthouses—the Thatcher Light—and a sounding bell buoy, and is a perfect harbor of refuge. Whether when the fog envelops it, as it often does, and the buoy gives out its warning note, or whether when the warm sun irradiates it and the bright, blue sky is reflected on its unruffled bosom, or whether we look at it at night, as we often do for hours, the brilliant stars overhead, the crescent moon just coming into sight and the Thatcher Light, all make the scene of the most beautiful sights in the world.

It is designed that it shall be the rendezvous of the North Atlantic Squadron in the first week in August. Then our dainty white war ships will take the place of the tiny fishing crafts and lobster boats, and many white uniforms will make the town gay, and there is the promise of even a more enchanting picture than ever before in our beautiful harbor.

"The Nubble" - York Harbor.

IN CAMPS OF OLD ORCHARD BEACH

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me., Saturday.—The Rev. Dr. F. B. Clark, founder of the Christian Endeavor Society, who was one of the speakers at the camp ground, was shocked at finding Old Orchard's places of amusement running full blast on Sunday. But while there is a general disrespect for Sunday shown at one part of the beach, observance of the day is carried to an extreme in other localities. Three camp meetings are now in progress—the Christian Alliance, at the Methodist ground, the Free Baptists and Church members, at Ocean Park, and the New England Universalists, at Ferry Beach Park.

OYSTER BAY HAS VERY FINE FISHING

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Saturday.—Piscatorial sport is becoming the rage here, and many big hauls of blackfish are being made, some weighing over three pounds. Parties from the cottages go out near Hog Island dam, starting as early as four o'clock in the morning. The women appear to enjoy the sport fully as much as the men. The fad to go out for a "nibble" has not yet become quite the correct thing with the very smart set, but it is the vogue for them to get brown by keeping in the open. Members of the east and west end summer colonies are seeking rest this season.

The Harbor
at Osterville,
Mass.
Photo by A. H. Laidlaw Jr.

KENNEBUNKPORT

KENNEBUNKPORT, Me., Saturday.—Every year at Kennebunkport the tendency is toward series of small events in the way of entertaining, and the careful hostess can thus bring together congenial people in a more enjoyable way than at large affairs where the wrong people are apt to drift together. Small dinners with eucalyptus afterward, and morning bridge with luncheon, have been features of this rather quiet week. Mrs. Gaskill had a few ladies at bridge one morning, and Mrs. Hoyt entertained at cards Monday night.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden gave a luncheon Saturday in Grayling, Mrs. Yeoman, Mrs. Brazier, Mrs. Stanton and Mrs. Smith being among the guests.

Mrs. J. H. Wilson, of the Oceanic, gave a small dinner early Monday for Mrs. Nott and Mrs. Parsons.

There is not along the whole shore a more delightful place than the summer home of Charles Parsons, of New York, so well named Crescent Surf. Nearby is the cottage built for the late Charles Parsons, Jr., now occupied by Edwin Parsons. In the living room is a mammoth fireplace built of huge slabs of stone brought from the St. Lawrence River.

Eastward is a mile of beach, broken only by the summer cottage of Dr. Frederick J. Nott, of New York, and at the end is the estate of George Parsons, of New York. Riverfront. Here Mr. and Mrs. Parsons spend very long seasons with their family, which includes Harry Parsons and Isabel Parsons, who married the daughter of General Corbin.

There was a large heart's party at the Cliff House Monday night, when Mr. Wallis and Miss Shaw won prizes. Mr. Phillips, Mr. McLaughlin and the Misses Nelson arranged it.

L. J. Maramore, of Washington, is a resident at the Parker House.

Al. Walter Otis, of New York, has joined his family at the Arlington, where they will stay for the remainder of the season. Other arrivals of the week there are Mr. and Mrs. John H. Luckin and Miss Emily, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Lord, of Rutherford, N. J.; C. B. Emery, of Charlottesville, and A. Emery, of St. John, N. B.

Lieutenant Downs L. Wilson, U. S. N., retired, with Miss Wilson, is at the Riverside.

For a few weeks, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stryker and Miss Mitchell, of New York, and L. A. Strauss, of Ann Arbor, are also recent patrons there, and T. Dudley Riggs has joined his family for the remainder of the season.

Walter F. Entz has joined his family at the Cliff House. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Austin and G. E. Cummings, of New York; Mr. Donald S. Leas, of Philadelphia; Miss Helen C. Coe, of Baltimore; Mrs. Robert Proffon and Miss M. B. Daly, of Brooklyn; Mrs. C. H. Gillett, Mrs. E. Smith and Miss Helen E. Brown, of Hartford, are among the latest arrivals there.

Recent arrivals at the hotels are: Nonantum House—Miss L. Goodrich and Mrs. E. B. Brander, of New York; Miss E. E. Fausig, of New York; O. Smith, Westmount, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. Ganson and daughter, Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Chace, Louise Chace, Maude Chace, Harry R. Chace, Jr.; F. W. Carpenter, Mrs. A. N. Reed and Marguerite Chase, Providence.

The Columbia-Allee Fleischmann, Grace F. Fleischmann, Miss T. S. Niebuke, Frank Bennett, Lillie Loebe, Alfred Frank, J. W. Frank and J. S. Frank, New York, and Charles M. Bush, Kansas City.

The Oceanic—Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Hess, Elizabeth Hess, Helen P. Hess, S. M. Gillelan, Mrs. R. H. Correll, Virginia Corvelli, Alice Corvelli, L. C. Smith, Mrs. A. Krahmer, Mrs. L. C. Davis and Maude Jacobs, New York; Mrs. Frank J. Hart, Miss M. Hart, Charles M. Hart, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Connor, Walter D. McCombe and J. C. Barton, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. John Schimmel, Miss A. B. Schimmel and Elizabeth M. Schimmel, New York; Mrs. J. M. Peters, Schimmel, Fred C. Peters, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clapp and the Misses Clapp, Pittsburg, and Benjamin L. Tomes, Philadelphia.

The Old Port Inn—Mr. James W. Haselauer, M. B. Proulx and family and E. Y. Graham, New York; Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Willey, Brooklyn; Dr. James Tyson and Miss Tyson, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harbeson, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Whitelaw, and Hazel Whitelaw, Cleveland, and Mrs. Milan Baker and Mrs. Jean Baker Welch, Buffalo.

SOUTHAMPTON

SOUTHAMPTON, N. I., Saturday.—This has been a gala week with the social folk.

The social gatherings were brought to a fitting climax at the Meadow Club Friday evening by the most successful dinner dance given this season. Among those present were H. C. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Schermerhorn, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Phelps Dodge, Miss Helen Parrish, W. G. Oakman, Nathan Lord, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Henderson, Jerome Hill, H. C. Ketchum, L. E. Frith, M. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Van Nostrand, Mr. and Mrs. T. Morris Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McVicker, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Weaver, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. William Maurice, Mrs. E. A. Sands, Mrs. H. Barclay, Miss Morton, Miss Dorothy Schieffelin, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, the Misses Edgar, La Grande, Griswold, B. R. Ruggles, T. Markoe Robertson, Charles Coster and A. J. Akin, 24.

Mrs. J. R. Soley gave a dinner for fourteen at the Meadow Club Friday evening. Mrs. George Schieffelin entertained twelve at dinner at the Meadow Club Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Wright have left the Meadow Club and have gone to Nahant, Mass., where they will spend the remainder of the season.

Mrs. James H. Beckman has gone to Saratoga, where she expects to remain through the month of August.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schieffelin and daughter, Miss Dorothy Schieffelin, will sail for Europe the first of next week.

Among the recent arrivals as guests of the Meadow Club are Mrs. Redwood, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Kouenik and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams.

Southampton's golf enthusiasts, and there are many, are in active preparation for the invitation tournament to be held under the auspices of the Southampton Golf Club during the last week of the month.

The eucalyptus at Mecon Inn seems to increase in social interest as the season advances. A most enjoyable one was held in the inn parlors Friday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Farley, John Naething, Mr. and Mrs. Naething, Mrs. Bingham, Robert O. Luquer, Miss Eckert, Frederick G. Mather, Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Holt, Miss Grace A. Morgan, Frederick W. Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. James Watt and Dr. and Mrs. Rogers.

An informal dance will be held this evening in the ballroom of Mecon Inn. The Top Notch pointer kennels and the poultry farm, owned by Ansell H. Ball, are among the interesting features at Water Mill. Mr. Ball has about twenty-five handsome, full blooded pointers, including several prize winners. His beautiful specimens of poultry are no less attractive, and with them he has won many medals at some of the largest poultry exhibits in this country.

The following persons are registered at Mecon Inn—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gullander, the Misses Gullander, Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield, Miss Doris Arnold, Littlefield, J. M. Byers, Mrs. Angeline C. Brown, Miss Wood, Mr. John Byers, the Rev. Nelson Kilgore, Dwight Kirby, Miss Mary Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Naething, Miss Rose Marie Naething, M. J. S. Candall, J. J. Dick, Mrs. S. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brodsky and Mrs. James Watt, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold, Miss Elsie Arnold and George Saville, Brooklyn; J. R. Scottville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dickinson, Jersey City; Robert Langer, East Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Woodbury, Orange, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kilpatrick, St. Louis.

NEW LONDON

NEW LONDON, Conn., Saturday.—The Philadelphia-Corinthian Yacht Club arrived here Wednesday afternoon from Shelter Island and remained in port until Friday morning, when the fleet continued on its cruise to Newport.

Thursday afternoon there were several races scheduled between the dingies and small boats, and the events created considerable interest among the yachtsmen.

Society people in the colonies are deeply interested in the horse, dog and poultry show which will be held in Armstrong Park on August 19. This is the fourth season this attraction has been held and under the auspices of the New London Baseball Club. C. H. Humphreys, manager, has had numerous applications and reports the coming exhibition as one of the most interesting events ever held in the city. Dr. F. M. Eason, of New York, has been selected as judge.

Former Lieutenant Governor Edwin O. Keeler arrived this week at the Pequot House to spend the month of August.

Recent arrivals at the Pequot House from New York are—Howard L. Gault, A. Lester Meyers, Billings Birch, George Harding, Miss A. Keener, Mrs. S. Melbach, Cora Melbach, Henry Stalon, E. L. Meyers, Frank Weber, R. R. Laidlaw, G. U. Burdick, William Bell, Jr., Robert Giffon, Henry Slack, Frederick L. Minotti, Harold Minotti, Mrs. John W. Masury, Mrs. Ralph A. Sturges, Maurice Rumbold, Mr. and Mrs. Zeth T. Steward, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Barnard, Richard J. Barnard, George K. Barnard, Miss Brown, Morris S. Hare, Oscar Leventhal, William Rowlette, Augustus N. Allan, Clarence F. Birdseye, C. R. Woods, Jr., W. H. McGuire, Miss Althea Salmon, Henry S. Oppenheimer, H. D. Newcomb, Thilford Boye, Miss Maid Tucker, Irene Priar, S. E. Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Barry, Mrs. S. A. Brown, Mrs. Watson, R. Burnside Potter, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Richardson, Mrs. Peace, Franklin Stetson, Ashton Lemoins and S. K. McGuire. From other cities—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillman, Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Seelye, Bridgeport; Rollin Jones, W. S. Burbank and H. C. Philbrick, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Allen, New Rochelle; Mrs. John S. Hopkins and Miss Brownlie, New York; Mrs. F. F. Bruns, Brookline and Jefferson Brunsback, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Thurston and F. A. Decker, Providence, and W. G. Reyburn, Washington.

Among the yachting parties that came ashore and Pequot House this week were P. L. Rodewald, Mrs. Rodewald, Miss Anna P. Rodewald, J. M. Boland, sloop Ellen; Theodore M. Hill, sloop Ariadne; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Eaton, yawl Zenobia; William Bell, Jr., sloop Wabasso; C. L. Irwin, E. Barretto, J. S. Tanner, E. M. Tanner, sloop Nora; Henry Stalon, Edward Swann, sloop Whitty, and G. A. Curry, yawl Lotowana.

Since the New York Yacht Club cruise ended the harbor has been well filled with pleasure craft, the following being noted at the local yacht station during the week: Steamers—Duchess, Aquilo, Viking, Gretchen, Katrina, Vamoose, Laydona, Alma, Duquesne, Guindio, Wild Duck, Ariadne, Emma, Jathel, Idalia, Schooners—Columbia, Mayflower, Minto, Hildegarde, Galilee, Vencador, Wayfarer, Momina, Comanche, Adrienne, Sachem, Amorita, Crusader, M. L. Kivwassa, Water Witch, Sloop—Whitty, Meda, Wabasso, Challenge, Eileen, Chiquita, Effort, Xara, Spasm, Swannanda, Yawl—Caricue.

THE WORK OF THE SUMMER GIRL.

"Break! Break! Break!
On thy cold, gray stones, O sea!"
The summer youth cried, "But never
Can you be as broke as me!"

"O well for the farmer's son,
To the seashore he does not go,
And owe to the touch of a vanished hand
The loss of his wad of dough!"

BERT TIMONEY.

The experiment of holding a Maine music festival will be attempted this month by Professor W. R. Chapman, of New York, director of the regular Maine annual festival. The chorus will consist of one thousand voices. Mme. Blauvelt, who is to sing in the Portland and Bangor festivals in October, has been engaged for the Old Orchard concert.

Among the latest arrivals are: Old Orchard House—Mrs. J. L. McBirney, Mrs. W. H. Ellis, Lyman Spitzer, A. H. Kalmus, Mrs. A. Buxbaum, Mrs. C. H. Coler and Miss E. Leonard, of New York; Lawrence C. Ward and Charles E. Ward, of Newark; Mrs. G. F. Conant and Clarence E. Conant, of Camden, N. J.

Seashore House—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor, Mrs. A. B. Graham, M. D. Mason, Mrs. A. M. Walker, Mrs. A. M. Ogden, Mrs. A. E. Tracy, Miss E. Brown, Mrs. H. M. Flint, Miss Moseenthal, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thayer, of New York.

Hotel Plisko—Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Seymour, Charles S. Meyers and family and D. D. McKelroy, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stanley, of Philadelphia; Joseph Gorman, of Hartford.

Bay View House—Vincent S. Cooke, Miss Helen B. Cooke and Miss M. Cuthbertson, of New York; A. W. Fulton, of Springfield. Hotel Velvet—J. T. Williams, E. B. Moore, Samuel Stain, M. J. Harnum, New York; Mrs. S. G. Hopkins, of Washington.

Hotel Everett—Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin, New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Campbell, Syracuse.

The Abbott—Miss Helen White, Miss Leonora White, New York; E. L. Reid, Brooklyn; Mrs. D. M. Ester and daughter, Buffalo.

The following New York visitors registered this week at the hotels at Proulx's Neck and Seashore Beach—Miss Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. James Surtees, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Chapman, Miss Marion A. Chapman, the Checkley House; Miss Margaret Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irwin, at the Cammock House; Mrs. C. M. Wilkie, Miss Wilkie and Miss Mary Wilkie, at Kirkwood Inn; H. G. Kitt, Mrs. L. G. Woodhouse, Mrs. C. L. Dillingham, at Atlantic House.

PLEASURE BY RULE ON MANHATTAN BEACH

MANHATTAN BEACH, L. I., Saturday.—Representing nearly every State in the Union, as well as Canada and Mexico, patrons have been pouring into this resort in large numbers this week, and the climax of the season has nearly been reached.

Both the Oriental and Manhattan Beach hotels are entertaining to their full capacity, and Friday and Saturday applicants for rooms were turned away by the score.

The number of transient pleasure seekers from New York was unusually large last week compared with the corresponding week last year, say the railroad people, and on several nights trains have been packed to suffocation.

The Pain fireworks people say the attendance at their nightly spectacle has been unprecedented.

Striking to the newcomer at this resort is the Friday schedule established by the all season patrons for the enjoyment of the various diversions. It is a sort of fixed time table of pleasure.

In the forenoon, following an after breakfast chat on the verandas, one plays tennis or golf, if athletically inclined, or if the breeze is good joins a party in a yachting trip to Jamaica Bay.

After luncheon, but not too soon after to be prejudicial to health, it is to bathe at the Sunbath. At many resorts the bathing hour is usually in the late afternoon, but perhaps because Manhattan Beach likes to be original mid-afternoon has been fixed as the appointed hour for this diversion.

After dinner one promenades on the veranda, listens to the evening concert, enjoys social chats with friends, or is perhaps one of a theatre or moonlight automobile party.

Then at six o'clock, when new patrons usually begin to arrive and those who make daily business trips to New York are returning, everything is life and bustle again, and from then until eleven in the evening the hundreds of visitors are everywhere in evidence.

from summer social duties, and as a consequence there is little for the butler and the maids to do as regards entertainments. There is really a dearth of receptions and afternoon teas.

Some excitement will be afforded to-day off Centre Island, in the straits for the Alfred Roosevelt Memorial Cup, in the raceboat class, August 28 the thirty footers and the fifteen footers will contend for the Robert Center Memorial Cup, under the rules of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club.

It has been the custom of Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt to tender a tea to the St. Hilts Society of Christ Episcopal Church, of which she is a member, and the members always look forward to these occasions with much fervor. Last year they were entertained on the Mayflower.

Mrs. Ralph Connable, of Detroit, who has been occupying the Hall cottage, left for London, Tuesday.

Thursday a party of New Yorkers and natives chartered the steamer Lavinia, Captain Millard F. Bayles, and went out near the lighthouse in quest of blackfish. They were rewarded by a good catch and a most delightful trip. Forty-five blackfish were victims to their prowess. The party comprised David McLaughlin, Miss Rogers, Harry Smith and son, McLaughlin, James Thompson, Professor B. F. Cooley, John Bingham, Valentine Bayles, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ellisha Hutchinson.

Mrs. J. West Roosevelt, who is to have as her guest to-day Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bell, of New York, will not visit her mother at Richmond Springs this season. She will probably not be absent from Waldeck during the summer.

Mrs. G. A. Remson, of South Norwalk, Conn., is here with her sister, Mrs. Mary Velsor.

Miss Lizzie Marshall, of Newtown, Pa., is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Torbert, at Bayville. Mrs. Torbert is also entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Crayer, of New York.

The detachment from the First Division of the Second Battalion, naval militia, of New York State, which has been camping on the Wakeman property, on the west shore of Oyster Bay, left to-day. The men, who arrived here in two cutters, have had a royal time. They were in command of Lieutenant Samuel L. Croghan, who, after long service, has resigned. An effort is being made to have him reconsider his action, as he is a very popular officer.

MARtha's VINEYARD, Saturday.—Golfing is again popular here. The Cottage City Golf Club has reorganized and put the deserted links at the south of Oak Bluffs in order. These links are pronounced by E. A. Mollen and other experts to furnish one of the best natural courses in America.

The regular annual illumination of the camp ground took place last Monday evening, and Trinity Park, Clinton avenue, the Old Circle and adjacent avenues and cottages were festooned with thousands of Japanese lanterns. Croghan, who, after long service, has resigned. An effort is being made to have him reconsider his action, as he is a very popular officer.

The Rev. T. S. Chase, of Garden City, L. I., conducted services in Trinity Episcopal Church, Cottage City, on last Sunday.

Captain Robert M. Clark, U. S. R. C. S., is occupying his cottage, The Anchorage, at Vineyard Haven.

Leater W. Clark and family, of New York, are at Chappiniddle for the season.

The large steam yacht Waturus, N.Y.Y.C., Randal Morgan, owner, attracted much attention here on a recent visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brewster and family, of Rochester, are occupying the Carpenter cottage on Oak Bluffs.

The Rev. Dr. Stevenson, of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, is summering in Vineyard Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Alden and Miss Constance Alden are at Edgartown for the season.

W. K. Dayton, of New York, is a recent arrival.

"I'm wondering, isn't it," she sweetly said, "Where we shall go this year."

"I hate bankruptcy," he growled.

"And you to Ocean Pier."